PROFILE

Senior graphic designer with 15+ years in marketing, advertising, and motion design, now creating interactive 3D web experiences with Three.js. Leads projects from concept to launch and turns editorial content into immersive, code-driven design that elevates the user experience.

EXPERIENCE

ASME — Creative Developer (3D Web)

11/2025 – 6/2026

- › Built interactive Three.js / WebGL sites that turn ASME's mechanical-engineering editorial into immersive 3D web experiences.
- › Created an animated digital magazine cover and an interactive engineering watchlist — 3D scenes, motion, and fully responsive layouts.
- › Owned each project end to end, from editorial design through front-end build and Vercel deployment.

Billboard / PMC — Senior Designer

New York, NY · 05/2017 – 02/2025 · Full-Time

- › Led design across web, magazine, one-sheets, and social content for billboard and digital advertising clients.
- › Won new ad-space business through persuasive marketing RFPs and pitch materials.
- › Produced motion graphics and title sequences (intros, lower thirds) in After Effects, Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, XD, and Blender.

Interactive One — Graphic Designer

New York, NY · 01/2017 – 05/2017

- › Designed print and digital campaigns across Interactive One's network of websites and radio stations.

DirecTV — Graphic Designer

New York, NY · 09/2016 – 12/2016

- › Designed full-page ads for DirecTV's soccer and golf streaming programs and contributed to the DirecTV Stream UI.
